LAST MEETING

Chicago 1, New England 0

July 12, 2014 – Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass.)

Quincy AmariKwa's third-minute goal proved to be the difference as the Chicago Fire earned the win at Gillette Stadium on July 12 ... the Revolution out-shot Chicago, 23-11, but were unable to find an equalizer ... the Revs had an opportunity to draw level in the 85th minute when the team was awarded a penalty kick after Jerry Bengtson was fouled in the area, but Sean Johnson made a spectacular diving save on Chris Tierney's effort to preserve the win for the Fire ... Revolution midfielder Andy Dorman was forced off the field with a right MCL sprain in the 29th minute following a challenge from Bakary Soumare, and has missed every game since while on the Disabled List.

TEAM NOTES

CHILDHOOD CANCER AWARENESS NIGHT SUNDAY

The Revolution will raise awareness for childhood cancers – and fundraise for a cure in partnership with MLS WORKS and the Pan-Mass Challenge – at the team's Childhood Cancer Awareness game when the Revs host Chicago on Sunday ... Highlighting the night will be in-game activations including:

- Special "Soccer Kicks Cancer" gold ribbon t-shirts on players during warm-ups and as they process out,
- Gold ribbon patches on players' jerseys and gold wristbands available for players
- Gold MLS WORKS scarves on coaches and broadcasters
- Gold paper ribbons available at the ProShop for a $1 donation to the Children's Oncology Group through MLS WORKS' partnership
- Staff throughout the stadium wearing gold awareness ribbon pins, and
- A special public service announcement and gold elements on the HD video and ribbon boards.

The Pan-Mass Challenge is the team's charitable partner for the game ... Aidan McDonagh (North Easton, Mass), 5, will serve as the game's honorary captain ... his mother, Christy, started the Easton (Mass.) PMC Kids Ride at Parkview Elementary School, which raised more than $17,000 ... Aidan and his sister Addison together raised more than $1,700 for cancer research in memory of their grandfather who passed away in April from cancer ... fans will have the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets to win a Revolution team-signed "Soccer Kicks Cancer" t-shirt like the ones the players will wear, as well as an autographed Chicago Fire player jersey, at Sunday's match. Proceeds from the raffle will be directed to the Pan-Mass Challenge.

FACING THE FIRE

Sunday's game at Gillette Stadium will be the third and final meeting of the season between the Revolution and the Fire ... the two longtime rivals played to a 1-1 draw in Bridgeview on April 19 with Bobby Shuttleworth saving a penalty kick in second-half stoppage time to earn his team a point ... however, on July 12, the Fire made a Quincy Amarikwa goal in the third minute stand up in a 1-0 win at Gillette Stadium with Sean Johnson saving a Chris Tierney penalty in the 85th minute ... all-time the Revs are 25-31-11 in the regular season against Chicago, including a 10-7-3 record at Gillette Stadium ... the two sides have also met eight times in the MLS Cup Playoffs with New England knocking Chicago out of the playoffs in 2002, 2005, 2006 and 2007, while the Fire eliminated the Revs in 2000, 2003, 2008 and 2009.

THREE IN A ROW

The 3-1 win over Sporting Kansas City on Wednesday stretched New England's winning streak to three games, dating back to the 1-0 win over Chivas USA on August 23 ... prior to that game, the club had gone just 1-9-1 in the previous 11 games ... this is the Revs' second three-game winning streak of the season, with the club winning five straight from April 26 until May 24 ... during the current winning streak, the Revs have conceded just one goal while scoring seven ... they have been tied or ahead for 234 of 270 minutes in that time, only trailing on Wednesday after falling behind 1-0.

ALONE IN THIRD

Wednesday's 3-1 win over Sporting Kansas City improved New England's record to 11-12-3 on the season, giving the club 36 points and sole possession on third place in the Eastern Conference heading into the weekend ... the Revs are three points ahead of Columbus, Philadelphia and Toronto FC (33 points apiece, tied for fourth place), and five points ahead of New York (31 points, seventh place) ... they are six points behind Sporting Kansas City (42 points, second place), with a game in hand ... four of those five teams (Kansas City, New York, Philadelphia and Toronto) play one another this weekend as TFC hosts the Union and New York hosts Sporting Kansas City on Saturday ... Columbus will host Chivas USA on Sunday afternoon.

EIGHT REMAIN

The Revs have eight games remaining on their schedule with four scheduled to be played at home and four on the road ... all eight games will see New England take on Eastern Conference foes with the club hosting Chicago (Sept. 7), Montreal (Sept. 13), Columbus (Oct. 4) and Toronto FC (Oct. 25), and traveling to face Columbus (Sept. 20), Sporting Kansas City (Sept. 26), Montreal (October 11) and Houston (October 16) ... so far this season, the Revs are:

- 5-4-1 against the clubs remaining on their schedule (3-2-0 at home, 2-2-1 on the road)
- 7-4-2 at home and 4-8-1 on the road overall
- 7-9-1 against fellow Eastern Conference clubs.

BACK TO ZERO

The two-goal win over Kansas City on Wednesday brought the Revs' goal difference on the season back even ... the last time New England had a goal difference of even or better was on July 4 when it lost 2-1 on the road against Real Salt Lake ... after that game, the club had scored 23 times and conceded 23 times before losing the following game 1-0 to Chicago ... the Revs low point of the season was minus-8 following the 2-1 home loss to Columbus on July 26, but since that result, the Revs have gone 4-1-1 and outscored opponents 12-4.

COMING FROM BEHIND

For just the second time this season, the Revolution was able to take all three points in a game in which it allowed the game's first goal ... Teal Bunbury equalized just before halftime and Lee Nguyen scored a pair of second-half goals in the victory ... while it is just New England's second come-from-behind win of the year, only three teams have more wins after conceding the games' opening goal: Portland (4), Seattle (4) and Dallas (3) ... this season, New England is 2-11-1 when conceding first, and 9-1-1 when scoring first ... prior to Wednesday, New England's only other come-from-behind win of the year was on May 3 in Toronto when the Revs fell behind 1-0 before scoring on either side of halftime for the victory.

ONE WIN FROM .500

The Revolution enter Sunday's game with an 11-12-3 record, leaving the club one win from a .500 record on the season ... the last time the Revs were at or above .500 was on July 4 when the club had a 7-7-2 record going into a home game with the Chicago Fire.

A FIRST START FOR JONES

Jermaine Jones made his first start in a Revolution shirt on Wednesday, playing the opening 45 minutes in central midfield ... the Revolution Designated Player was credited with an assist on Teal Bunbury's equalizer late in the opening 45 minutes as his cross-field pass picked out Bunbury, who got past his defender and saw his shot deflected into the net ... Jones finished the game with 40 touches and completed 25 of the 29 passes that he attempted ... his 86.2 percent pass completion was the best on the team ... he also committed one foul and was fouled once before being replaced by Steve Neumann at the half.

"NGUYENNING" LEADING TO MVP CONSIDERATION

Lee Nguyen has been included in the 2014 MLS MVP discussion, and with the career year the midfielder has been having, he could be on his way to "Nguyenning" his first major league award ... with 12 goals - including two on Wednesday against Sporting Kansas City - Lee Nguyen moved into a fifth-place tie in MLS in goals scored this season ... six of his 12 goals have been game-winners, including his first goal on Wednesday ... Nguyen also:

- Shares the league lead in game-winning goals (6)
- Has the most goals by any midfielder in MLS this season
- Is tied with LA's Gyasi Zardes for the most goals by an American in MLS this year
- Is tied for ninth place in club history with 21 goals all-time
- Is the 10th different player to score 10 or more goals for the club in a single season and the third to do so while playing primarily in midfield, joining Clint Dempsey (2005) and Diego Fagundez (2013)
- Is one goal shy of tying the club record for goals by a midfielder (Diego Fagundez, 13, 2013)
- His 12-goal total is the ninth-best scoring season in Revolution history
- Wednesday's two-goal effort against Sporting Kansas City was his second multi-goal game of the year and the third of his career

NGUYEN HAVING A CAREER YEAR ...

Entering the 2014 season, Lee Nguyen had nine goals in 63 games, including career-best five in 2012 ... of those nine goals, two were game-winners ... however, 2014 has turned into a different story ... Nguyen scored his ninth goal of the season on August 23 against Chivas USA having already notched his third game-winner on July 30 against Colorado.

... AND HELPING THE REVS WIN, MOST IMPORTANTLY

Lee Nguyen has been instrumental in the Revs' success this season, especially since late July ... overall on the year, New England is 8-1-1 when he scores a goal, and 3-0-0 when he records an assist ... Nguyen has scored in each of the last three games - all Revs wins - and in the last six games dating back to the 3-0 win against Colorado on July 30, he has scored six goals and recorded two assists ... in those six games, the Revs went 4-1-1 to take 13 of a possible 18 points and move into sole possession of third place in the East.

BACK-TO-BACK FOR BUNBURY

For the first time since August 2012, Teal Bunbury has scored in back-to-back games ... the fifth-year winger has 23 goals in 115 regular-season appearances and has scored in consecutive games six times in his MLS career ... with goals at Toronto (July 30) and against Kansas City (Sept. 3), is the first time that he's scored in back-to-back games since being traded to New England during the offseason ... two of his four goals on the season have come against his former club - Sporting KC - as he also scored the game-winner against them on April 26 in a 2-0 win at Gillette Stadium ... Bunbury has four goals and four assists so far this season and he's tied for second on the team in both categories.

ROWE TAKES ASSIST LEAD

With his assist on Lee Nguyen's game-winning goal on Wednesday, Kelyn Rowe now has recorded an assist in three consecutive games for the first time in his MLS career ... with his assist on Wednesday against Sporting, he moved into the team lead for assists this season (5) ... third-year midfielder's five assists (in 19 games) match his total from his 2012 rookie season are three shy of his career-best eight in 2013 ... the Revs are now 3-2-0 when Rowe has an assist, with all three wins coming in the last three games.

SHUTTLEWORTH STEPPING UP IN GOAL

Bobby Shuttleworth continued to set career milestones on Wednesday night when he registered his 10th win of the season ... while he snapped his streak of minutes not allowing a goal at 214, he did not allow another goal after Kansas City's strike in the ninth minute and claimed his third straight win ... Shuttleworth is the fourth goalkeeper in club history to record 10 or more wins in a season, joining Adin Brown, Matt Reis and Walter Zenga ... earlier this year, Shuttleworth established new career highs - which he keeps extending - in games played, games started, wins and saves, and also saved the first penalty kick of his MLS career against the Fire's Juan Luis Anangono on April 19 ... with seven shutouts, Shuttleworth is two shutouts shy of matching his single-season mark of nine, which he set in 2013.

A CENTURY OF STARTS FOR SOARES

Four days after making his 100th appearance for the club, fourth-year defender A.J. Soares made his 100th career regular-season start on Wednesday night against Sporting KC ... the 13th player in club history to start 100 games, Soares played the full 90 minutes in central defense alongside Jose Goncalves ... selected by the club in the first round of the 2011 MLS SuperDraft out of Cal, Soares has appeared in and started 25 of the club's 26 games this season, missing only the 2-0 loss away to FC Dallas on July 19 while serving a one-game red-card suspension ... he has six goals and one assist in his career, including two goals and an assist this season.

AND TWO MORE COULD JOIN SOARES

While A.J. Soares became the 13th player in club history to make 100 starts, two of Soares' teammates could join him on the elite list and make their 100th start with the Revolution in the final two months of the regular season ... Darrius Barnes has started 99 games for the club, while Andy Dorman has started 98 ... Shalrie Joseph (254), Chris Tierney (137) and Kevin Alston (125) are other current Revs players in the 100+ starts club.

THREE STARTS FOR BARNES = THREE WINS

Darrius Barnes has started the Revs' last three matches at left back, filling in for the injured Chris Tierney ... with Barnes at left back recently, the Revs are 3-0-0 and have allowed just one goal ... for the season, the Revs are 7-4-1 in the 12 games that Barnes starts ... he also started nine games at right back, with the club going 4-4-1 in those matches.

CASTILLION SIGNS

Geoffrey Castillion, the 23-year-old former Dutch youth international, has arrived in the U.S. and has been officially added to the Revolution's roster ... he is expected to train with the team for the first time on Saturday, Sept. 6, and be available for selection the following day against Chicago ... Castillion last played for NEC Nijmegen in the Dutch Eredivisie, appearing in nine games and scoring twice while on loan to the club from Ajax ... a native of Amsterdam, Castillion is a product of the famed Ajax Youth Academy and made his first-team debut for the club in March 2011 ... he has also spent time on loan with RKC Waalwijk (seven goals in 33 games), and Heracles Almelo (four goals in 33 first-team games and 13 goals in 12 reserve-team appearances) ... last season, Castillion split his time between the Ajax reserves and NEC ... he spent the first half of the season with Ajax (1 goal in six appearances with the reserves) before joining NEC on loan in January (two goals in seven appearances) while also making a pair of substitute appearances for the club in the quarterfinals and the semifinals of the Dutch Cup ... Castillion also played for the Netherlands at the Under-17, Under-18 and Under-19 levels ... he was a member of the Dutch team that reached the semifinals of the 2008 UEFA Under-17 Championship, scoring two of the Netherlands' four goals in the competition.

REVOLUTION ROSTER NOW FULL

With Geoffrey Castillion's signing, the Revolution's roster now sits at 30 active players ... that total includes three players - Jossimar Sanchez, Luis Soffner and Alec Sundly - who are currently on loan to the Rochester Rhinos and are expected to return at the end of the Rhinos' season ... Honduran forward Jerry Bengtson joined Belgrano of the Argentine First Division on a year-long loan in late July, and is not currently on the Revs' active roster.

THREE FOR ALL

Of the 30 players on the Revolution roster, just three have appeared in all 26 regular-season matches, and two of them are in their first year playing in New England ... Teal Bunbury, Diego Fagundez and Daigo Kobayashi have all appeared in the first 26 matches of the season with Bunbury starting 24, Fagundez starting 22 and Kobayashi starting 18 ... Bunbury is in his first season with the Revs after coming to the team via a trade from Kansas City in February, while Kobayashi joined New England in February from a trade with Vancouver ... no New England player has started all 26 matches with Andrew Farrell and A.J. Soares tying for the team-lead with 25 games started ... Farrell leads the team with 2,250 minutes played, playing the full 90 minutes in every game except for the season opener against Houston, which he missed with an injury ... Fagundez and Kobayashi each played in two of the Revs' three U.S. Open Cup games this year, leading lead the club with 28 appearances in all competitions.

CALDWELL RETURNS

The Revolution could welcome Scott Caldwell back to the fold on Sunday after he was forced to sit out Wednesday's 3-1 win over Sporting KC while serving a one-game suspension for yellow card accumulation ... Caldwell was shown his fifth yellow card of the year against Toronto FC (Aug. 30) after pulling back Dominic Oduro early in the second half of the Revs' 3-0 victory ... prior to his suspension, Caldwell had started and played the full 90 minutes in each of New England's previous seven matches, beginning July 19 at Dallas ... now in his second season with the club, the Braintree, Mass., native has appeared in 18 matches this season, making nine starts and collecting one assist ... the Revs are 3-5-1 when he starts, and 7-1-1 when he comes off the bench.

THREE ON WARNING

While Caldwell is eligible to return to action, three Revolution players will enter Sunday's game on yellow card warning and one booking away from a one-game suspension for yellow card accumulation: Teal Bunbury, A.J. Soares and Chris Tierney ... Bunbury was shown his career-high fourth yellow card in the first half of Wednesday night's win over Sporting KC and is now three clean games away from having one card expunged from his record ... Soares, who picked up his fourth yellow card of the season on Aug. 23, is now one clean game away from the Good Behavior Incentive ... Tierney picked up his fourth yellow card of the season at FC Dallas on July 19, and was not booked a week later against Columbus, though he was forced to exit that game in the 21st minute with a left knee injury and is listed as Questionable on the club's official injury report ... he remains two games shy of achieving the Good Behavior Incentive.

DORMAN ELIGIBLE TO COME OFF THE DISABLED LIST

Andy Dorman suffered a sprained right medial collateral ligament (MCL) in the Revs' 1-0 loss against Chicago on July 12 in a collision with Bakary Soumare ... he was placed on the Disabled List on July 15, and has missed the last nine games ... while he is now eligible to come off the Disabled List at any time, he has yet to return to full training and is again listed as Out on the club's official Injury Report ... it was announced at the time of his injury eight weeks ago that he is expected to need 10-12 weeks in order to fully heal and return to action.

IT TAKES TWO TO WIN - USUALLY

The Revolution are now 10-0-0 when scoring two or more goals this season ... with Wednesday's 3-1 win over Sporting KC, the club has now scored two or more in back-to-back games for the first time since a five-game winning streak in late April and May ... the Revs 1-0 win over Chivas USA on August 23 was the club's only victory this season in which it did not score at least two goals ... prior to that game, the Revs were 0-12-3 when scoring one goal or fewer.

BACK FOUR IN FLUX THIS SEASON

While Revolution head coach Jay Heaps has been able to use the same starting back four in each of the last three games, he has still needed to use seven different defenders at varying points this season ... those seven defenders have been utilized in nine different starting four-man groupings for the club's 26 MLS matches:

Defender	Def. Appearances	Def. Starts	Defensive Positions Played
Andrew Farrell	25	25	RB, CB
A.J. Soares	23	23	CB
Jose Goncalves	19	19	CB
Chris Tierney	19	17	LB
Darrius Barnes	17	12	LB, RB
Kevin Alston	7	7	RB, LB
Stephen McCarthy	1	1	CB

Defensive groupings (LB, CB, CB, RB)	Matches	Record
Tierney, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	9	2-6-1
Tierney, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	4	4-0-0
Alston, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	4	2-1-1
Barnes, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	3	3-0-0
Tierney, Goncalves, Farrell, Barnes	2	0-2-0
Tierney, Goncalves, Soares, Alston	1	0-1-0
Tierney, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-1-0
Tierney, McCarthy, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-1-0
Alston, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-0-1

The quartet of Barnes, Goncalves, Soares and Farrell have started each of the last three games in front of Bobby Shuttleworth, with all four players playing the full 90 minutes in each game ... in that time, the Revs have allowed 29 shots (9.7 per game) and nine shots on goal (3.0 per game), conceding a single goal and posting a goals against average of 0.33.

NEUMANN IS REVS' GO-TO MAN OFF THE BENCH

Rookie Steve Neumann made his longest substitute appearance of the season on Wednesday night against Sporting Kansas City, playing the final 45 minutes in midfield after replacing Jermaine Jones at the halftime break ... Neumann has now made a league-high 17 substitute appearances this season, having come off the bench for all but two of his 19 league appearances this year ... after Neumann made his MLS debut as a substitute on April 5 at D.C. United, he appeared in 12 straight MLS games as a second-half sub between April 19 and July 16 ... he made his first career start at Dallas on July 19 and was also in the starting lineup on August 2 away at New York.

Player	Substitute Appearances
Steve Neumann, NE	17
Conor Doyle, DC	16
Chad Barrett, SEA	14
Lewis Neal, DC	14
Brian Ownby, HOU	14

CORNER KICKS ADDING UP ...

The Revolution leads MLS in corner kicks with 170 on the season, 21 more than the second-place club, Sporting Kansas City ... on July 26 against Columbus, the Revs tied a club record with 15 corner kicks, and have averaged more than eight corners per game in the last 15 matches, dating back to May 24 against D.C. United ... Kelyn Rowe has taken a team-high 68 corners, while Chris Tierney (41), Lee Nguyen (26) and Daigo Kobayashi (24) rank behind him ... Columbus forward Federico Higuain leads MLS with 109 corner kicks this season, while Rowe enters the weekend tied with Thierry Henry for the ninth in the league.

... BUT STILL JUST ONE GOAL TO SHOW

Despite those MLS-best 170 corner kicks, the Revs have scored just once this season directly from a corner ... that came on July 26 against Columbus when A.J. Soares scored his second goal of the season, heading a Kelyn Rowe corner-kick service in at the near post to tie the score at 1-1.

YES, FAGUNDEZ IS STILL A TEENAGER

Despite still being a teenager, Diego Fagundez is now in his fourth year as a member of the Revs ... Fagundez, who turned 19 on Feb. 14, had a career year in 2013, scoring 13 goals (to tie for fifth in MLS) to lead the club in scoring while adding seven assists... the Leominster, Mass., product was also voted team MVP ... his 13 goals last season all came from the run of play, and marked the highest season goal total for a teenager in MLS history ... the only teenager in MLS history to score 10 or more goals in one season, Fagundez now has 21 goals in his career and holds the league record for goal scoring by a teenager:

Rank	Player	Goals as a Teenager
1.	Diego Fagundez	21
2.	Eddie Gaven	16
3.	Jozy Altidore	15
4.	Freddy Adu	12
5.	Andy Najar	10

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A RESULT MAKES

Below is a comparison of the team's average stats in its wins, losses and draws:

	Wins	Losses	Draws
Number	11	12	3
Goals Per Game	2.73	0.42	0.67
Goals Allowed Per Game	0.64	2.33	0.67
Shots Per Game	13.5	15.0	12
Shots Allowed Per Game	13.1	13.2	12.3
Shots on Goal Per Game	6.3	4.6	3.7
Shots on Goal Allowed Per Game	3.4	5.6	4.3

The Revs have scored 30 goals in their 11 victories, compared to just seven in the 15 games that the club has lost or drawn ... they have also registered at least 10 shots - and more shots on goal than their opponent - in 10 of their 11 victories.

"HOMETOWN" FEEL ON THE ROSTER

Four players on the Revs' roster – and the head coach – are New England natives, giving the team a true hometown feel:

Local Products	Hometown
Scott Caldwell	Braintree, Mass.
Charlie Davies	Manchester, N.H.
Diego Fagundez	Leominster, Mass.
Chris Tierney	Wellesley, Mass.
Jay Heaps	Longmeadow, Mass.

Both Caldwell and Fagundez played for the Revolution Academy and are Homegrown players ... Tierney and Davies played together on the Boston Bolts, before playing collegiately at Virginia and Boston College, respectively ... Heaps, who was born in Nashua, N.H., and raised in Longmeadow, Mass., has been a member of the Revolution organization for 14 seasons now, as a player, broadcaster and now head coach.

ATTENDANCE RISING AHEAD OF LEAGUE PACE

Entering this week, ahead of the team's home matches against Kansas City and Chicago, the Revolution's attendance is pacing far ahead of 2013's attendance ... through 12 home games, the club has increased its attendance by 12.5 percent ... the Revs average 15,342 fans at Gillette Stadium this year – ahead of the club's average of 13,635 through 12 games in 2013 ... this season, the Revs claim MLS' fourth-highest attendance growth rate so far, behind San Jose (20.9%, which includes a match at Levi's Stadium), D.C. United (19.4%) and Toronto FC (16.2%) through the same number of home games a year ago.

ROCHESTER AFFILIATION RENEWED

The Revolution and the Rochester Rhinos (USL PRO) renewed their partnership that makes the Rhinos the official USL PRO affiliate of the Revolution ... this is the second year of the teams' affiliation and is one of the founding partnerships of the MLS and USL PRO relationship that launched in 2013 to help further the development of professional soccer in the U.S. and Canada ... the Rhinos are currently tied for sixth place in the USL PRO standings and will host Wilmington on Sunday afternoon to close out the regular season ... the top eight teams qualify for the postseason, which start next weekend.

#OURFRIENDCLYDE

Former Revolution midfielder Clyde Simms retired from professional soccer in early 2014 because of his battle with kidney disease ... while he was one of MLS' most consistent players for nine seasons during his time with D.C. United and the Revs, kidney disease ended Simms' career that also included one cap for the U.S. National Team ... Clyde's disease - Focal Segmental Glomerulosclerosis (FSGS) – has now progressed to the point that he needs a kidney transplant ... the usual waiting time for a suitable kidney match is about four years, and many people on the waiting list don't have that long before needing to go on dialysis – including Simms ... Simms also recently opened an indoor cycling studio in Dedham, Mass. – Rev'd Indoor Cycling – of which Simms is a co-owner and a certified indoor cycling instructor ... people interested in donating a kidney first need to contact a donation center and be tested ... to be tested to see if you are a match to help Clyde – or other people waiting for a kidney match – please contact Massachusetts General Hospital's Living Donor Program at (617) 643-7193 ... more info: www.revolutionsoccer.net/OurFriendClyde ... for more information on Rev'd Indoor Cycling, visit RevdIndoorCycling.com.

FLAG OF NEW ENGLAND

Long before the sewing of the American flag as we know it -- before there were the United States, and hundreds of years before its slightly-altered stars and stripes emerged on the Revolution club badge -- a flag of a different design was flown proudly in the early colonies that now comprise New England.

Historic Revolutionary War artist John Trumbull's depiction of the Battle of Bunker Hill featured a red flag with a green pine tree, which often served as a representation of the New England colonies. While historians argue the exact dates of origin of this early flag, over time, the design stood out as a symbol of honor for the territory.

It was a reflection of unification. It's flown as an homage to the region's pride and passion.

No group has more pride or passion than Revolution supporters, who have flown the flag of New England in Gillette Stadium, and the former Foxboro Stadium, since the club's inception in 1996.

With such a deep connection to both club and country on many different levels, the flag of New England now adorns the Revolution's uniforms -- both as testament to the region's revolutionary history, and as a visual representation of the club's supporters.

Situated on the back of the jersey, at the base of the neck -- a position reserved for the most meaningful representations on soccer jerseys -- the flag of New England now lives in honor on the back of every New England Revolution jersey.

Sitting above the players' last names, the Revolution and supporters alike are reminded that the club holds true to its community's historic roots in reverence, and continues to proudly represent the historic region of New England, while symbolically bringing the supporters onto the field, each and every game.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE REVS

"Lee Nguyen is so much more than just a scorer. Still boggles my mind he created the turnover on both his goals as well #NERevs"

- Carl Setterlund, Soccer by Ives (via Twitter) (Sept. 3, 2014)

"Being in the thick of a playoff race should be motivation enough for the Revolution. But having Jermaine Jones around is kicking up the intensity level a notch ... Jones had a lively MLS home debut in the Revolution's 3-1 win over Sporting Kansas City Wednesday night, contributing to the visitors' goal, then setting up the tying score, before becoming the team's most demonstrative cheerleader on the bench in the second half."

-Frank Dell'Apa, The Boston Globe (Sept. 4, 2014)

"Lee Nguyen has to be considered in the MVP discussion for MLS this year ... He's also eighth in the league in chances created and he's tied for first right now in game-winning goals with six on the season. That's huge for the Revolution who are now up to third place in the Eastern Conference and they're on a roll. They could actually start to contend in the Eastern Conference."

- Greg Lalas, Editor-in-Chief, MLSSoccer.com (Sept. 4, 2014)

Years with Club: 3

Years coaching in MLS: 3

Career Coaching Record: 34-40-20

Postseason Record: 1-1-0

Jay Heaps is in his third season as the head coach of the New England Revolution and his journey to revitalize the Revs as they return to the upper echelon of Major League Soccer continues after a breakout 2013 campaign ... Heaps has installed a new winning attitude and an exciting, possession-oriented playing style that focuses on the team's dynamic young talent ... after qualifying for the MLS Cup Playoffs in his second season at the helm – and surging up the standings in the final month of 2013 – the Revs are poised for even greater improvement in 2014 ... with the team's core set to return – one that not only turned heads offensively in 2013, but also sat near the top of the league all season defensively – the Revolution is looking to challenge for Major League Soccer's biggest prize this season: MLS Cup ... guiding the up-start, re-built Revs to a 9-17-8 record in his first season in 2012, Heaps turned the Revolution around in 2013, taking the team to a 14-11-9 record, 51 points – the second-highest point total in club history – and a return to the postseason ... behind a precocious group of young players – highlighted by Homegrown star Diego Fagundez, Kelyn Rowe (Heaps' first-ever draft pick) and Andrew Farrell (the number one pick in the 2013 SuperDraft) – as well as off-season signing Jose Goncalves, who ended the campaign as the league's defender of the year, the Revolution turned heads around MLS ... after stepping away from his 11-year MLS playing career following the 2009 season, Heaps returned as the new head coach of the Revolution in November 2011 ... with his appointment, he brought to the bench some of his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, passion and tirelessness.
